4.	Single-speed asynchronous (induction) three-phase electric motors with power from 0,75 kW to 30 kW	STB 2332 (section 4)	640/2009/EC	Required	Technical documentation

* Note: Manufacturer should draw up EE Label, Product Fiche and Technical Documentation.

Note 2: For External Power Supplies (p. 3.7), Household and office equipment (p. 3.10) energy labeling is not required. For Motors – class of energy efficiency needs to be indicated on the marking plate.

In general, EE Label, Product Fiche and Technical Documentation include following information:

EE Label:

- manufacturer's name or trade mark;
- model identifier;
- the energy efficiency class;
- energy consumption;
- etc.

! EE Label shall be done in the Russian/Belarusian language

Product Fiche:

- manufacturer's name or trade mark;
- model identifier;
- energy efficiency class;
- energy consumption;
- etc.

! Product Fiche should be in the Russian/Belarusian language

Technical documentation:

- the name and address of the manufacturer;
- a general description of the equipment, sufficient for it to be unequivocally and easily identified;
- where appropriate, the references of the standards applied;
- where appropriate, the other technical standards and specifications used;
- technical parameters for measurements as energy consumption, etc.
- the results of calculations
- etc.

! Additionally, Technical Documentation should contain information which is listed in the specific EE STB standards (as usually, Section 4 of EE STB standard)

→ Detailed information see in specific EE STB standard. BELLIS will provide all necessary consultation and guidance to fulfill the requirements.
